

Joint SSN Study Day

EAST MEETS WEST: OBJECTS IN RENAISSANCE PAINTINGS

Organised by The Islamic Art and Material Culture SSN and the SSN European Paintings pre-1900
Generously supported by Arts Council England and the Pilgrim Trust

Wednesday 16 January 2019, 11.00-15.30

The National Gallery, Trafalgar Square, London WC2N 5DN – Wilkins Building Entrance

Programme

Arrival via Wilkins Building entrance (staff entrance) to the left of the main portico facing Trafalgar Square

- 11:00 Registration and Welcome (Wilkins Foyer/Board Room; refreshments provided)
Dr Mary Hersov, Head of National Programmes (The National Gallery)
Dr Rebecca Bridgman, Curatorial and Exhibitions Manager (Birmingham Museums/Chair of Islamic Art and Material Culture SSN)
- 11:15 Introduction: Reflections of the Eastern Mediterranean in Italian Renaissance Art
(Wilkins Board Room)
Prof Deborah Howard (University of Cambridge)
- 11:30 Lorenzo Lotto Portraits – Overview over the Exhibition (Wilkins Board Room)
Dr Matthias Wivel, Curator of Sixteenth-Century Italian Paintings (The National Gallery)
- 12:00 Self-guided Visit to Lorenzo Lotto Portraits (Ground Floor Galleries)
With Dr Matthias Wivel
- 13:15 Sandwich Lunch (Wilkins Board Room & Former Viewing Room; lunch provided)
- 14:30 Tour and discussion of the Sainsbury Wing displays
With Prof Anna Contadini, Professor of the History of Islamic Art (SOAS, University of London) & Dr Caroline Campbell, Director of Collections & Research (National Gallery)
- 15:30 Finish
Delegates free to visit 'Mantegna & Bellini' (complimentary tickets provided)